LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. James Mitchell entertained the Kandiana Club last Thursday evening.

Mr. B. E. McFarland and wife left Tuesday for a week's visit with Mr. Jacob Ford and family, in Chicago.

Mr. Edward Stuckey went to Xenia, Tuesday, to assist in appraising the Gallowing & Rater hardware stock, this firm going into the hands of a receiver some time ago. Sheriff McCullister was named in this capacity.

Mr. Charles Fautler and wife, of Cincinnati, have been guests of the latter's parents, Mr. Samuel Kildow and wife.

A case of diphtheria has been reported, but fortunately not of a very serious nature. Gertrude Endsley, a seventh year pupil, was taken sick Saturday and was placed under quarantine.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall went to Piqua Sabbath morning to visit relatives. Mr. Hall returned Monday evening and Mrs. Hall will remain for a week.

Messrs. J. F. Hartman and L. T. Cummins have finished their terms as members of the Board of County Commissioners and on Monday vacated their seats for the newly-elected members, J. C. Conwell and G. M. Sullivan. Both of the retiring officials have been capable and painstaking with public work and administered the affairs much to the satisfaction of the public.

Mr. Earl Gaines, who has been in the City hospital at Indianapolis for several weeks, returned Wednesday. He will make his home in Columbus with his brother Charles.

Mr. A. D. Carver, wife and son, of Richmond, Ind., are visiting relatives here.

The Economy Gas Iron will do your ironing for one cent worth of gas, and is fully guaranteed and the price is low. Get one on trial of J. E. PIERCE.

—Wine of Cardul, 70c At Wistman's.

—For good pure spices get them at Ridgway's.

Mr. Ray McFarland, of Columbus is here on a ten days vacation.

PEACHES:—Ollings for earning and others for making butter. G. C. Hanna.

Messrs. Ralph Hill and Robert Conley left Wednesday evening for Pittsburg where they enter Carnegie Technical Institute.

Rev. W. J. Sanderson and family left Tuesday for Selma, Ala., where the former takes up his school duties for another year. Miss Louise Starrett, who teaches in the same school will go to Selma next Thursday.

Mr. M. W. Silvey, after a trip covering 18 months in the West, returned home Wednesday evening much improved in health. Mr. Silvey was especially taken with California as a place of residence.

4 Reels of motion pictures Saturday evening. Don't miss it.

—Canned corn and tomatoes are especially priced in dozen lots. Nagley Bros.

Mr. Earl Gaines, who has been in the City hospital at Indianapolis for several weeks, returned Wednesday. He will make his home in Columbus with his brother Charles.

FOR RENT:—The west half of house on Cedar street. Inquire of Mrs. J. H. Milburn.

Mr. Robert McFarland, aged 61, died Thursday morning at the County Home, where he was taken last Saturday, after an illness of some duration. But one brother, John W. McFarland, survives. The funeral will be held this Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of M. C. Nagley.

—Wine of Cardul, 70c At Wistman's.

—For good pure spices get them at Ridgway's.

The following invitations have been issued:
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Townsley request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Carrie Savilla, to Mr. Raymond S. Bull on Thursday evening, the second of October, nineteen hundred and thirteen at six-thirty o'clock, Cedarville, Ohio.

The many friends of Miss Irene McClellan were given a surprise Wednesday evening upon learning of her marriage to Mr. W. D. Shank, of Indianapolis. The marriage had been planned for next week but owing to the groom intending to accept a new position in the south the change in date was made. There were no invited guests and the only witnesses were Mr. L. P. Marshall and wife of Xenia and Mr. J. L. Turnbull, wife and son, Paul, when the ceremony was performed at the bride's home by Rev. J. S. E. McMichael at eight o'clock. The bride wore her traveling gown and hat to match. Following the ceremony the couple were driven to Xenia where they took the train for Indianapolis, from which city they will go to Huntington, Ind., to visit at the groom's home. Mr. Shank was formerly employed on the Indianapolis Sun but has accepted one with the Metropolis, at Jacksonville, Florida, recently purchased by Mr. G. A. McClellan, brother of the bride. The bride is a popular and charming young woman and has many friends that extend congratulations.

THE WIZARD FIRELESS COOKING KETTLE

THE MOST WONDERFUL COOKING UTENSIL OF THE AGE. THE FIRELESS WIZARD

The Wizard Fireless Cooking Kettle combines the advantages of the expensive fireless cookers and the common cooking kettle, and gives you a simple insulated kettle requiring no gas, no oil, no fire, no heat. You do not have to transfer the Wizard to a big cumbersome box. All you have to do is to put the food to be cooked in the Wizard. The Wizard does the rest. The Wizard is a wonder. The principle is a scientific fact. It is the last word in fireless cooking. Any method of retaining heat at cooking temperature will do the work. Why bother with expensive devices? Get the Wizard. It does not cost much. It is insulated with ground mica. A non-conductor. Nothing can injure it. It is sanitary. The insulation will not decay. It will not pack down. Always ready to use.

THE WIZARD SAVES 50 MINUTES ON THE HOUR OF FUEL COST

IT WILL COOK

Oat Meal, Breakfast Food, Boiled Rice, Barley Mush, Rice, Cream of Wheat, Vitas, Cracked Wheat, Graham Mush, Postum Cereal, Stock, Split Pea Soup, Mutton Broth, Chicken Soup, Vegetable Soup, Corn Soup, Mock Turtle Soup, Chicken Broth, Lentil Soup, Roast Beef, Roast Veal, Roast Pork, Pork Tenderloin, Fresh Pork and Sauerkraut, Roast Lamb, Pot Roast, Boiled Beef, Veal Rolls, Veal Curry, Beef Stew, Corned Beef, Pot Roast, Stuffed Steak, Boiled Ham, Stuffed Heart, Sweet Breads, Beef Loaf, Corn, Parsnips, Potatoes, Tomatoes, Onions, Cabbage, Sauerkraut, Macaroni, Spaghetti, Oysters, Fish, and a thousand other good things to eat.

Think what the Wizard does.

Cooks anything you can cook in an expensive fireless cooker at the cost of an ordinary aluminum kettle. Keeps food hot. Saves money, time, labor, worry. Nothing burned. A fireless cooker in kettle form.
